Deputy Clerk

Pro Hac Vice (For this one particular occasion)

An attorney who is not a member of the California State Bar, but who is a member in good standing of, and eligible to practice before, the bar of any United States Court or of the highest court of any State or of any Territory or Insular possession of the United States, who is of good moral character, and who has been retained to appear in this Court, be permitted to appear and participate in a particular case. An attorney is not eligible to practice pursuant to this paragraph if any one or more of the following apply to him: (1) he resides in California, (2) he is regularly employed in California, or (3) he is regularly engaged in business, professional, or other activities in California.

The pro hac vice application shall be presented to the Clerk and shall state under penalty of perjury (1) the attorney's residence and office address, (2) by what court he has been admitted to practice and the date of admission, (3) that he is in good standing and eligible to practice in said court, (4) that he is not currently suspended or disbarred in any other court, and (5) if he has concurrently or within the year preceding his current application made any pro hac vice application to this court, the title and the number of each matter wherein he made application, the date of application, and whether or not his application was granted. He shall also designate in his application a member of the bar of this Court with whom the Court and opposing counsel may readily communicate regarding the conduct of the case and upon whom papers shall be served. He shall file with such application the address, telephone number, and written consent of such designee.

Fee: $20.00 library fee, payable to Clerk, U.S. District Court

Application and fee should be mailed directly to:
